

Dear _____,

I hope you're doing well! [My name is __ and] I wanted to share about what God has been doing in my life and the next step He is leading me into.

This year, I will be [attending/continuing my education at] Pacific Life Bible College, where I [will be/am] pursuing a [Degree/Certificate/Diploma] in [Specific Program]. I am grateful for the opportunity to spend this season growing in my faith, studying God's Word, and being equipped for ministry and service wherever God leads me.

As I prepare for this upcoming semester, I would love to invite you to partner with me. First and foremost, I would greatly appreciate your prayers during this next chapter. Specifically that God would [continue to shape my heart/give me wisdom as I study/help me build meaningful relationships throughout the school year/provide opportunities for ministry/specific prayer request].

If you feel led to support me financially, any amount would be a genuine blessing and would directly help make this year at Bible college possible. Your support would help cover costs such as tuition, books, and living expenses as I prepare for future ministry. You can give directly to me through [e-transfer/cheque/etc.], or you can send an e-transfer to PLBC through finance@pacificlife.edu with a comment indicating what the money is for. Giving sent through the college will be passed along to me but is not tax-deductible.

Thank you for considering supporting me in this journey. Your prayers, encouragement, and generosity are deeply appreciated as I continue to pursue God's calling and prepare for ministry.

[With gratitude/From/Sincerely]
